With so many different destinations and activities to enjoy, this trip is sure to be one worth taking!

Day 1 : Pakwach To Wadelai

On this this day, we kick start our tour from Packwach to wadilai, a distance of 42km journey. It involves a lot of activities like animal viewing along the bank, community engagement in fishing. Later you will have lunch and continue for an afternoon sports fishing activity.

Later, evening transfer to your lodge for dinner and overnight.

Day 2 : Wadelai to Rhinocamp and Overnight.

After breakfast, Our guide will pick you up from the lodge. The 49km distance from Wadelai to Rhinocamp comes with a pack of activities. We will take a boat ride to Rhinocamp and later proceed for shoe-bill hurting and trekking then lunch. After lunch and relaxation with will spend some time with the Rhinos that were previously extinct, some horse riding activities and later departure to the lodge for dinner and overnight.

Day 3: Rhinocamp To Laropi

After breakfast, we proceed with the days activities. its a long distance from Rhinocamp to Laropi. On this day we will head to East Madi Game reserve. The East Madi Wildlife Reserve in northern Uganda has existed for over 50 years in some form of protected area. During this time it has mostly been managed as a controlled hunting area and there has been little focus on the biodiversity of the reserve. Animals found here include; Nile bush-buck, oribi, duiker, Warthogs plus many sightings of different bird species. Blue monkey, Black and white colobus have also been sighted in this game reserve of approximately 831 km².

Later afternoon we will continue with our trip Laropi where will pass through other places like Obongi, Itula which still comes with more activities for the day.
